NEW SERIES VOL. XV, NO. 52.

PALATKA, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1907.

$1. Per Year.

PEOPLE ARE MONEY TIGHT

They've got it, but are holding on to it for fear of trouble ahead--

That's What Makes Trouble

It has already made it for us. The SPECIALLY BIG STOCK of CLOTHING we bought for the winter trade is not moving as it should.

Something Had to Be Done.

That is our one and only reason for making a

Tremendous Cut on Clothes right now--at this one season of the year when business is naturally good. We bought heavily in anticipation of a greatly increased trade. Here it is, less than a week of Christmas, and no increase. We are afraid, hence our determination to Unload Regardless of Profit.

SENATOR W. J. BRYAN

Gov. Broward has issued a commission to Hon. W. J. Bryan of Jacksonville to serve out the unexpired term of S. R. Mallory, deceased, as United States Senator from Florida.

Mr. Bryan is one of the leading young attorneys of the state. He is a brilliant and brainy young man and the appointment will never be severely criticized. He was Gov. Broward's earnest and leading supporter, is a candidate for the regular term nomination, and in standing by his friend, the Governor did the proper caper. 'Rah for Senator Bryan.

THE PERFECT WAY.

Scores of Florida Citizens Have Learned It.

If you suffer from backache, there is only one way to cure it. The perfect way is to cure the kidneys. A bad back means sick kidneys. Neglect it, urinary troubles follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

S. B. Lemons, cigarmaker, living at 1311 Ashley street, Tacoma, Fla., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of backache and disorder of the kidneys. Two or three times on account of the pain in my back I was unable to go to work for several days. The secretions of the kidneys were in very bad condition, dark in color and it allowed to stand would become of the consistency of jelly. I tried various remedies, taking what seemed like gallons of medicine and I also put on plasters, but nothing helped me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills upon the advice of a friend of mine, and using them according to directions they cured me in a very short time."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name--Doan's--and take no other.

MALLORY IS DEAD.

He Was Florida's Senior U. S. Senator.

Senator Stephen Russell Mallory died at 12:48 o'clock Monday morning at the home of his nephew, Dr. Mallory Kennedy, in Pensacola.

Senator Mallory was stricken on November 20th with paralysis of the left side. He rallied somewhat, but early on Sunday began sinking rapidly and was in an unconscious condition all during the afternoon and night.

A dispatch from Washington Monday afternoon stated that "in conformity with his dying request, conveyed in a telegram to the sergeant-at-arms yesterday, the late United States Senator Stephen R. Mallory of Florida, who died last night, will not be given an official funeral, but it will be conducted privately and without ostentation. No committee of congress, therefore, will be appointed and such senators and members as will attend the obsequies will do so unofficially. Senator Mallory's aversion to official funerals was well known here and the telegram he directed to be sent yesterday occasioned no surprise."

The funeral occurred from St. Michael's church on Tuesday morning and was attended by a vast concourse of people.

The dead senator was a son of Stephen R. Mallory who was a United States senator from Florida from 1851 until the state seceded in 1861. Three days after the inauguration of Jefferson Davis, he appointed Senator Mallory secretary of the Confederate navy, a position he held until the fall of Richmond in 1865.

Senator Mallory was born in 1849. He joined Lee's army as a private and won distinction for rare courage. He was graduated from Georgetown college, and for two years after graduation taught a class there. He then moved to New Orleans and was admitted to the bar in that city. In 1874 he began the practice of law in Pensacola. He was elected to the Florida legislature in 1878 and to the Florida senate in 1880, being re-elected in 1884. He was elected to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third congress and in 1888 he was a delegate to the national Democratic convention which nominated Cleveland and Thurman for president and vice president. In 1890 he was nominated for congress at Bartow, and elected and again in 1892 he was nominated and elected to congress. In 1897 he was elected to the United States senate and re-elected in 1903, which term he was serving at the time of his death.

Senator Mallory was a member of the senate committees on commerce, fisheries, naval affairs, Pacific islands and Porto Rico, patents, public health and national quarantine and the revision of the laws of the United States.

In June, 1904, Senator Mallory received the degree of Doctor of Laws from the Georgetown University.

A Home Made Happy by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today. Geo. W. Spruex, Holly Springs, N. C. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Ackerman Stewart Drug Co.

Roasts Morbidly Curious.

Rev. John O'Brien, a former rector of St. Monica's Catholic church in this city, but now of Fernandina, is thus notified by the Record of that city in its last issue:

"The large congregation at the Catholic church on last Sunday were given a few words on a current topic, when Father O'Brien spoke against the morbid curiosity of those who rushed and crowded around the jail at the execution of the negro, John Brown, in the hope that they would catch a glimpse of the condemned man or see him as the trap was sprung."

"Father O'Brien spoke with the greatest kindness, but severely condemned those who were present upon occasions of this kind only to see a condemned felon die. He said that while there were many problems confronting the authorities in dealing with cases of this kind and many differences of opinion, he felt that capital punishment ought to be abandoned if people looked upon it as they appeared to do when Brown met his fate. Father O'Brien was the spiritual adviser of Brown and was present at the hanging as a matter of duty. It was then that he observed the morbid curiosity of the crowd which gathered there. His references to the matter Sunday met with the approval not only from his congregation, but from the people of Fernandina in general."
